

beni suef university: the cairo university beni suef branch was established in 1981beni suef university was established in 2005 by republican decree no 84 and became independent from the prestigious cairo universitythe university includes faculty of commerce faculty of law faculty of veterinary medicine faculty of arts faculty of science faculty of education faculty of pharmacy faculty of medicine faculty of nursing faculty of industrial educationfaculty of engineeringfaculty of physical educationthe university study system consists of two semesters except for the faculty of medicine where the duration of study in each semester is 15 weeks followed by an end of semester exam the general result of the group is at the end of the academic yearthe number of graduates since the start of study at beni suef faculties until 2007 is 62321 graduates from various colleges and institutes research centers availability: no

number of students: 63500 number of staff: 3275

gender: mixed

rating: 250

type: public

faculty of commerce at beni suef university: the college was a branch of cairo university since the establishment of the faculty of commerce in 1976 until the issuance of the independence decision and its implementation in its first academic year 20052006 the new faculty building was inaugurated on the university campus in 1988 the college of commerce at beni suef university seeks to provide distinguished education to qualified youth equipped with advanced knowledge skills and experiences in order to support their capabilities of giving innovation and professional creativity in the labor markets relying on scientific and administrative human cadres and the components developing available resources and making good use of financial resources and maximizing them using unconventional methods faculty of arts at beni suef university: the faculty began in 1985 when a ministerial decision was issued to establish the faculty of arts at cairo university beni suef branch beni suef university became independent in the academic year 20052006 the college of arts beni suef university looks forward to national and international accreditation for its programs and activities in order to prepare and qualify specialized academically and field accredited graduates in the disciplines of arts humanities and social sciences the college of arts beni suef university works to provide high quality study programs in the fields of literature humanities and social sciences to prepare distinguished specialists to work in productive and service institutions in accordance with local and regional standards and the college also seeks to provide distinguished programs for postgraduate studies and the development of scientific research in a way that serves the community and it contributes to solving its problems and developing the environment faculty of education at beni suef university: the faculty of education was established within the beni suef branch of cairo university under resolution no 239 of 1983 and the study began in the division of basic education in 19891990 then the study began in the general division with its various specializations and in the year 19921993 ministerial decree no 800 of 1997 was issued to establish a division childhoodthe college of education in beni suef consists of three main departments1department of curricula and teaching methods2 department of psychology and mental health3department of pedagogy educational administration and comparative educationthe college of education at the university of beni suef seeks to prepare teachers and develop them professionally to reach them to achieve the required performance standards and to prepare researchers who are able to contribute to building knowledge and employ it in solving educational and life problems and to provide educational services in order to achieve the development of education and the advancement of society faculty of law at beni suef university: studies began at the faculty of law beni suef univ ersity in the academic year 8182 the college seeks to spread awareness and legal culture encourage comparative legal research in light of contemporary social and economic problems and issues and enhance knowledge of human rights and fundamental freedoms by means of presenting an integrated package of legal legal and economic sciences the college works to qualify and prepare specialists in the field of legal sciences to meet the needs of the labor market in all institutions local and international public and private faculty of medicine at beni suef university: republican decree no 23 of 1995 was issued to establish the college of medicine and the university hospital attached to it the college of medicine at beni suef university seeks to make the college of medicine in beni suef a distinguished medical scientific center at the local and global level that contributes to the development of health sciences distinguished by the quality of its graduates the quality of its research and the relevance of its training programs to local and global needs the college works to play a distinguished educational training research and health role providing the community with doctors of high values and ideals competent and capable of continuous selflearning providing quality health care following up on specialized training contributing to scientific research and interacting with the local medical community faculty of veterinary medicine at beni suef university: in 1981 the supreme council of universities decided to establish the college of veterinary medicine in beni suef and presidential decree no 78 dated 1982 ce was issued including the establishment of the college of veterinary medicine in beni suef studies at the college began in the academic year 198281 by accepting the number 50 a male and female student from the governorates of beni suef fayoum and minya the faculty of medicine beni suef university is working to prepare veterinarians with scientific competence and distinguished practical skill and seeks to achieve a distinguished position in the international rankings among the corresponding colleges regionally and internationally faculty of science at beni suef university: the faculty is located on the western campus at the entrance to the city of beni suef from the north salah salem street the faculty of science in beni suef was established in 1984 and was affiliated with cairo university as a branch in beni suef until the branch became a university according to presidential decree no 84 of 2005 since its establishment it has been striving to activate its capabilities and capabilities to enrich the experiences of its students relying on this on the scientific and intellectual experiences of its teachers the college includes three major sectors the education and student affairs sector the postgraduate studies and research sector and the community service and environmental development sector the faculty of sciences of beni suef consists of six departments the department of chemistry the department of botany and microbiology the department of zoology the department of physics the department of geology and the department of mathematics and computer science the college operates the credit hour system and it is the first college to operate in this system and it is also the first college at the university level to obtain accreditation from the national authority for quality assurance and accreditation since 2015 where its graduates can compete in the local and regional labor markets faculty of pharmacy at beni suef university: the study began at the faculty of pharmacy cairo university beni suef branch in the academic year 9495 in the preparatory year in the building of the faculty of science beni suef the college was moved in 199899 to a separate building consisting of 2 suites each suite consisting of five floors the faculty of pharmacy at the university of beni suef is one of the institutions of higher education that aspires to excellence in education and the advancement of scientific research related to the various pharmaceutical sciences and services the needs of society related to the pharmaceutical issue the faculty of pharmacy at beni suef university seeks to become a distinguished faculty at the local and international levels in the field of education and scientific research search related to the various pharmaceutical sciences faculty of nursing at beni suef university: the faculty of nursing beni suef university was established in 2000 the faculty looks forward to achieving a leadership position within the corresponding faculties locally and regionally in the field of nursing education scientific research and community service the college of nursing seeks to graduate qualified and distinguished nursing cadres scientifically and professionally keeping pace with local academic standards able to provide high quality nursing care in all health institutions and able to compete in the labor market as well as preparing distinguished scientific researchers to contribute effectively to solving the health problems of the community faculty of physical education at beni suef university: the faculty of physical education beni suef university was established in 2006 the college seeks to graduate scientifically and physically qualified athletes to become sports cadres in all disciplines in educational and sports facilities faculty of engineering at beni suef university: the faculty of engineering in beni suef was established by presidential decree no 267 of 2006 the faculty began work in 2009 the department of civil engineering and then the department of architecture in 2012 to graduate highly skilled specialized engineers capable of absorbing modern technologies in engineering fields dealing with them efficiently and keeping pace with their continuous global developments faculty of industrial education at beni suef university: the faculty was established by ministerial resolution no 301 of 1992 in the name of the college of industrial education to graduate a new type of teachers who are able to understand and absorb modern technology and who are educationally qualified to teach industrial technical subjects the study began in the academic year 1993/1994 and was affiliated with the ministry of higher education and the president of the republic agreed on 7/3/2006 the college joined the university of beni suef the college of industrial education looks forward to achieving academic excellence in industrial education and preparing a graduate who meets the global requirements of the labor market faculty of computers and information at beni suef university: the decision of the supreme council of universities to approve the establishment of the college of computers and information systems was issued in its session on thursday july 26 2012 provided that the study begins in the school year 2012/2013 the college of computers and information systems strives to activate its potential and ability to enrich the experiences of its students relying on the scientific and intellectual experiences of its professors the college includes three major sectors the education and student affairs sector the graduate studies and research sector and the community service and environmental development affairs sector the faculty of computers and information systems at beni suef university consists of four departments department of computer science department of information systems information technology department multimedia section faculty of economics and political science at beni suef university: the faculty of economics and political science at beni suef university was established by a presidential decree in 2013 to open its doors to receive its first class in the academic year 2013/2014 where the number of students in the first batch of the college reached 560 male and female students faculty of postgraduate studies for advanced sciences at beni suef university: due to the rapid and successive development of modern sciences and their applications in industry and the increasing demand for modernizing the capabilities of individuals for the advancement of industry and society inside and outside the university in view of the overlapping of disciplines and scientific fields on each other it has become necessary to link research with industry through advanced technological sciences therefore beni suef university decided to establish the faculty of postgraduate studies for advanced sciences the college of graduate studies for advanced sciences seeks to become a distinguished scientific school in the field of conducting advanced scientific research and studies between universities and research centers locally regionally and globally it also contributes to solving industrial problems and achieving sustainable development the college is committed to preparing specialized and qualified research and professional cadres to meet the work need and contribute to the study and research of industrial problems of a local regional and global nature through applied scientific studies and research working on the development and sustainability of resources and preparing appropriate mechanisms to measure their rates in accordance with national standards and building partnerships with various institutions concerned with research scientific faculty of dentistry at beni suef university: in line with the policy of beni suef university in spreading science and knowledge advancing progress and serving the community the university established the faculty of dentistry in 2013 the faculty of oral and dental medicine beni suef university is committed to providing a distinguished educational service based on the latest educational and technological methods to prepare an ethically and professionally committed dentist with high cognitive technical and research skills capable of competing in the labor market locally regionally and internationally the college is also committed to its educational and therapeutic role in line with international quality standards in community service and works to achieve an integrated system for scientific research and innovation in the field of oral and dental medicine with high efficiency and a creative human element faculty of media at beni suef university: the faculty of media beni suef university was established by ministerial resolution no 1035 of 2013 and its work began in the 2013/2014 academic year the college is working on preparing egyptian graduates to work in the various fields of media capable of dealing with information and communication technology committed to the ethics of the media profession and able to compete at the national and regional level and conduct scientific research related to the priorities of the regional community and contribute to the development of media institutions by providing consultations and training programs and preparing a generation of researchers scholars represent the nucleus of a major research trend in egyptian and arab issues in the field of media and development faculty of physical therapy at beni suef university: the faculty of physical therapy at beni suef university was established by prime minister decree no 595 of 2013 the faculty of physical therapy beni suef university strives for leadership local and regional summit and recognition of excellence globally the faculty of physical therapy beni suef university is committed to graduating graduates who are able to meet the needs of various levels of the local labor market at a highly competitive and distinguished level and researchers who are able to develop the profession at a competitive research level within the framework of values and customs that support community service and continuous learning through continuous development of educational programs and research scientific faculty of agriculture at beni suef university: the faculty of environmental and bioagriculture and food manufacturing beni suef university was established by prime minister decree no 1437 of 2014 the decision of the supreme council of universities was issued approving the faculty's bylaw which contains four basic programs the plant production program the animal and poultry production program the food and dairy industries program and the technology program the study was started in the college in the academic year 2014/2015 the faculty of agriculture beni suef university seeks to be an educational and research institution capable of preparing cadres familiar with the latest scientific and technological technologies in accordance with national and international academic standards in the field of agriculture and agricultural industrialization with the aim of competing locally and globally with ile providing distinguished community services to serve the goals of sustainable agricultural environmental and rural development within the framework of the mission of beni suef university the faculty of agriculture is committed to preparing graduate professionals and agricultural researchers in the fields of production agricultural industrialization land reclamation and agricultural project management equipped with a high level of integrated knowledge and skills capable of contributing to the development of the agricultural sector community development environmental preservation keeping pace with global scientific developments and consciously full of community problems with realistic solutions faculty of applied health sciences technology at beni suef university: the college of applied health sciences technology was established in 2014 it works to prepare skilled medical technicians at a high scientific level capable of providing highquality auxiliary health services with an efficiency that competes at the global level willing to learn and continuous development it seeks to graduate technicians who are familiar with the basics of the profession and who are able to develop them and raise their scientific level constantly and who are qualified to enter the labor market bearing in mind the provision of highquality service to the community as an objective faculty of kindergarten at beni suef university: given the societal importance of kindergarten specialization and the urgent need to prepare qualified teachers at the best level and mothers who are familiar with the foundations of raising children for future generations beni suef university decided to establish the faculty of early childhood education the faculty of kindergarten in beni suef is committed to providing a qualified teacher to perform her professional research and community roles and to ensure the dissemination of a culture of quality in kindergartens and to support its programs in continuous training and self financing quality standards and the exploitation of various modern technological means and available material and human resources faculty of applied arts at beni suef university: the study began at the faculty in the academic year 2016/2017 the faculty of applied arts beni suef university seeks to be a leading educational and research institution at the local and international levels in all areas of specialization and a source of creativity according to international quality standards the college works to prepare a distinguished graduate and researcher who is able to develop his creative and technological skills and to provide specialized technical services and consultations that meet the needs of the local and regional labor market through various educational programs faculty of alalsun at beni suef university: the faculty of alalsun was established in 2016 pursuant to ministerial resolution no 1755 of 2016 the main significance behind the establishment of the college of alalsun at beni suef university was the graduation of skilled youth in the languages spoken by peoples of geographical cultural and civilizational weight in the world which aids in civilized cultural social as well as intellectual communication communication through living languages is one of the most important tools of the era that aid progress and creative coexistence among peoples also building an advanced society in egypt cannot take place without effective communication with the developed countries that surround us in the european continent as well as the promising peoples in asia such as india south korea china and russia as well as african languages faculty of social work at beni suef university: it was established by prime minister decree no 2450 of 2015 the faculty of social work beni suef university seeks to prepare a distinguished social specialist scientifically skillfully and emotionally who can compete in the labor market locally and regionally and is able to bring about positive change in society and conduct research that is concerned with studying human behavior and the social environment to develop plans the occasion for professional intervention whether at the undergraduate or postgraduate level and the advancement of society it also works on developing its internal community and the surrounding local community and contributing to solving national problems faculty of earth sciences at beni suef university: it was established in 2016 as an alternative to the institute of water and petroleum technology within the framework of the university's interest in national projects that serve the country and to contribute to the establishment of everything that contributes to the development of vital areas that serve the country the faculty of earth sciences is the first of its kind in egypt the faculty includes all disciplines related to earth sciences not just water and petroleum sciences it deals with the study of all areas of water resource management drainage petroleum mineral wealth and environmental impacts the college seeks to be a pioneer and distinguished in the fields of exploration and management of water resources petroleum mineral wealth and the environment the college seeks to reach leadership and creativity by adopting its academic programs and specialized applications in various sectors the college is working hard to prepare qualified scientific cadres in the fields of exploration and management of water resources petroleum mineral wealth and environmental impacts to meet the requirements of the labor market and provide them with practical skills that conform to the standards of the national authority for quality assurance of education and accreditation to advance scientific research and community services faculty of tourism and hotels at beni suef university: it was established in 2016 the faculty aspires to achieve uniqueness and excellence professionally and academically to provide qualified and trained graduates according to the best scientific levels locally and regionally it also seeks to lead in scientific research and encourage creativity and innovation in the fields of tourism and hotels the college also seeks to contribute to the development of the tourism sector by enabling students to obtain a high level of knowledge and skills in tourism and hotel sciences and to provide the student with a set of values that must be available to workers in the tourism industry and to provide and develop curricula tools and methods of education which contributes to creating a creative educational environment in accordance with the requirements of the tourism and hotel labor market the faculty of special needs science at beni suef university: the faculty of special needs science was established in 2018 thus beni suef university became the first university in egypt and the arab world to open the first college of sciences for people with special needs a college that was established to provide society with scientifically and professionally qualified human cadres using modern technologies in education to enable them to conduct high quality research that meets the needs community for people with special needs what qualifies them to work in the fields of special education whether in schools hospitals or associations interested in people with special needs inside and outside egypt faculty of navigation sciences and space technology at beni suef university: the college of navigation sciences and space technology was established in accordance with prime minister decision no 849 of 2017 on 4182017 the college is unique in granting undergraduate and graduate degrees in the field of navigation sciences and space technology at the regional continental and arab levels the college aims to establish an integrated scientific base in the fields of navigation sciences and space technology through advanced and distinguished study plans and programs in conformity with standard academic standards capable of qualifying the competitive graduate in the fields of work and expansion in research fields to serve the requirements of society to reach the college for excellence and academic accreditation national institute of longevity elderly sciences at beni suef university: the institute was established by presidential decree in 2017 the institute awards a specialized diploma in geriatric studies a master's degree in geriatric studies and a doctorate in geriatric studies the institute contributes to the development of a national strategy for integrated scientific research in the field of the elderly which helps to prepare scientific cadres scientific and practical and to create models for integrated services for the elderly which helps to promote social peace it works on the production and innovation of information skills attitudes and behaviors that guarantee the right of the elderly to a more luxurious and peaceful life departments of the institute department of medical care department of nursing studies department of nutrition and care department of psychological studies department of social studies department of physiotherapy department of technical studies department of physical education and recreation department of occupational therapy department of engineering and environmental studies laser institute for research and applications at beni suef university: the aim of this institute is to create specialized and highly skilled laser personnel the institute is unique in the middle east and is very different from other institutes in the region due to the great difference in objectives objectives and field of study regional and international levels in the field of postuniversity education and seeks to qualify specialized researchers through academic programs in the high diplomas masters and doctoral degrees in order to contribute to the prosperity of society and gives the institute diploma of laser and master's and doctoral degrees medicinal and aromatic plants research institute at beni suef university: beni suef governorate is considered a pioneer in the cultivation of medicinal and aromatic plants due to its suitable climatic and weather conditions in addition to the nature of the good agricultural land and its distinguished farmer with experience in cultivating these crops as well as the governorate's proximity to export markets and major factories in cairo governorate among its leading position in this field comes the establishment of the research institute of medicinal and aromatic plants at beni suef university prime ministers decision no 1409 of 2017 as a response to work on the completion of the egyptian states national plan for the advancement of medicinal and aromatic plants and the universitys ambitious research plan 2015-2020 which seeks through it to join the ranks of distinguished universities locally and internationally the medicinal and aromatic plants research institute aims to become a distinguished research institute leading in the research of medicinal and aromatic plants at the local international and global levels in order to keep pace with scientific progress at the world level and meet the local and external demand in maximizing and producing medicinal and aromatic plants and applications list on it it also looks forward to providing various services to meet the needs of the community and reach the highest level of local and international standards institute for small and medium enterprises studies at beni suef university: the institute for small and medium enterprises studies was established by prime minister decree no 342 in 2018 the institute seeks to achieve research and scientific excellence in all its educational and research programs and community service and to contribute to enriching knowledge with purposeful scientific research establishing a partnership with advanced scientific and practical societies and building a double bridge between him and the community in order to bring modern knowledge technologies and research to the educational production service and community sectors the institute also seeks to provide uniqueness in the provision of academic plans and programs that have no counterpart in all institutes colleges and universities that deal with project management and the trend towards covering the areas of small and medium project management entrepreneurship and community partnership and achieving control over contracting works and shortterm contracts and investment risk management in small and medium sized enterprises

Contact information for beni suef university: address: beni suef governorate - salah salem street.; contact numbers: 0822356845; email: info@bsu.edu.eg; website: <https://www.bsu.edu.eg/>; facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/bsuuniv>; twitter: https://twitter.com/beni_suef; linkedin: <https://www.linkedin.com/school/beni-suef-university>; youtubeplay: <https://www.youtube.com/user/benisuefuniv>; instagram: ; map_src: <https://www.google.com/maps/embed?pb=!1m14!1m8!1m3!1d13947.095132300588!2d31.102181!3d29.082829!3m2!1i1024!2i768!4f13.1!3m3!1m2!1s0x0%3a0x44c89eb7a44623ae!2z2kzyp9mf2lnyqsdynmg2yog2lpzinmk2ye!5e0!3m2!1sar!2seg!4v1622034187510!5m2!1sar!2seg>