

assiut university: assiut university au was established in 1952 in the city of assiut and it is the fourth egyptian public university in terms of the history of establishment and t he first university to be established in upper egyptassiut university harnesses its potent ials and directs it to achieve its vision by providing the required education in the prese nt and in the future in addition to preparing generations that are able to compete in the labor market at the local and international levels and are eligible for excellence in deve loping scientific research technology and research programs that contribute to the develop ment of society within the framework of the university's ethics the university also aims t o be the pioneer in creating a knowledge societythe number of faculties of the university is 17 collegescollege of science college of engineering college of agriculture college of medicine college of pharmacy college of veterinary medicine college of commerce col lege of education college of law college of physical education college of nursing coll ege of specific education college of education in new valley college of social work col lege of arts college of computers and information college of dentistryand two institutes namely the institute for research and technology of sugar industry south egypt institute of oncologyassiut university au hospitals is considered one of the largest and oldest edu cational and therapeutic university hospitals at the level of the republic of egyptthe uni versity hospitals include the main university hospital the women's health hospital the uni versity childrens hospital the institute of oncology hospital the students hospital the br ain nerves neuropsychology and kidney and urology center under construction this is in add ition to the heart diseases and surgery institute and alrajhi liver center which are under constructionassiut university au hospitals also includes one of the largest microscopic s urgery units in egypt and the arab world which is the microscopic surgery unit of the univ ersity's orthopedic department which was established in 1995

research centers availability: no number of students: 75000 number of staff: 5000

gender: mixed

rating: 100

type: public

faculty of science at assiut university: the university of assiut was established in octob er 1957 with only two faculties the faculty of science and the faculty of engineering now the faculty of science campus is one of the most unique campuses as it comprises both acad emic buildings and living accommodation for the staff and students our faculty has been kn own for its unique teaching system the common department system makes the faculty responsi ble for teaching all courses of the basic sciences to undergraduates as well as to graduat e students of different faculties of the university this faculty offers its students six s cientific departments mathematics department physics department chemistry department geol ogy department botany department zoology department faculty of engineering at assiut university: the study began at the faculty of engineering assiut university with the establishment of the university in 1957 and the faculty seeks to prepare distinguished engineers capable of keeping pace with the demands of industrial institutions and the service sector and to provide our graduates with a foundation of know ledge and skills in line with international standards for engineering projects in their sp ecialized fields faculty of agriculture at assiut university: the study began in the college in the academi c year 1959/60 ad with the acceptance of 205 male and female students and the first batch g raduated in 1963 ad and the number of graduates was 82 male and female students and the co llege has graduated so far fortysix batches where the number of graduates has reached 1446 4 so farthe faculty of agricultural assiut university has won a reputation for its highcal iber teaching programs and its friendly helpful faculty members and staff this faculty is the foster of three faculties of agriculture in upper egypt faculty of agriculture minia university faculty of agriculture sohag university and qena faculty of agriculture south valley university your faculty has played a vital role in providing skillfully trained human resources for the development of agriculture in egypt in general and in upper egypt in particular we do our best to train staff for local institutions such as the ministry of agriculture and other private sectors faculty of medicine at assiut university: the faculty of medicine at assiut university seeks to attain a regional pioneer ranking and international progress via achieving an ongoing distinction in the fields of education scientific research and community service the faculty mission is to alleviate human suffering by nurturing a group of future leaders in both clinical care and biomedical inquiry who will have the ability to compete locally nationally and globally we commit to graduate competent physicians who are qualified to upgrade and develop the medical profession faculty of pharmacy at assiut university: the study began at the faculty of pharmacy assiut university in 1961 the faculty seeks to provide our graduates with distinguished pharmaceutical education through accredited scientific programs which qualifies highly efficient pharmacists who are able to actively contribute to improving community health care and competing in the national and regional markets we work to develop the medical industry and meet the health needs of the community at the heart of the faculty vision is the desire to provide our students with pharmaceutical education scientific research and community services at both national and international levels faculty of veterinary medicine at assiut university: the faculty of veterinary medicine at assiut university was established by presidential decree no 828 for the year 1961 and started studying in the academic year 1962-1963 it is working hard to keep abreast of the development of veterinary medical sciences and techniques and raising the efficiency of the veterinary medical services provided by the educational veterinary hospital and diagnostic and treatment convoys upper egypt the college is always developing its educational systems in line with international standards the faculty consists of sixteen departments which are department of anatomy histology and embryology department of pathology and clinical pathology department of animal nutrition and clinical nutrition department of health control of food department of health and common diseases department of forensic medicine and toxicology department of bird and rabbit diseases department of animal medicine and department surgery anesthesia radiology department of obstetrics reproduction and ivf department of parasitology department of microbiology department of biochemistry department of physiology department of medicines and department of aquatic medicine and care faculty of commerce at assiut university: from 1963 till today the pathway was not an easy one it was filled with hard work belief and dedication to achieve all our goals and to graduate cadres who are able to stand out in the labor market in 1966-1967 the number of graduates from the faculty of commerce was 120 graduates then in 2007 the number of graduates was 1219 now it reached 40000 graduates the faculty of commerce assiut university is aspiring to become an academic reference by quality assurance in education training graduate studies and community service in addition to being always ready to cope with the rapid change and development in areas of specialization locally and internationally faculty of education at assiut university: the faculty of education at assiut university is aware of the teacher's mission and its importance in society and the college's goal is to become a leader in the fields of education learning scientific research and community service regionally and globally the college of education aspires to enhance the role of education and dedicate it to serving people and societies consequently the college of education seeks to keep pace with technological development and modern trends in teaching and learning ing as well as upgrading developing and implementing programs and encouraging research and training methods that develop knowledge faculty of law at assiut university: the faculty of law at assiut university was established in 1975 and about 20285 students have graduated from it since 1979 the faculty has four departments the college of law is working on graduating qualified and trained cadres in practicing legal and legal works that are closely related to the specializations of law in its various departments islamic sharia economics and public finance through deepening legal knowledge public and private skills emotional and ethical aspects necessary for practicing legal work and deepening scientific research in those legal and legal disciplines contribute to community service and environmental development by spreading legal and legal awareness and providing legal advice and training in the aforementioned areas of specialization for all bodies operating in our surrounding communities the faculty of law strives to be one of the most important tributaries of science and knowledge in egypt in the field of legal and legal sciences it also works to build generations armed with science and legal knowledge capable of working in all judicial bodies legal and legal institutions and free professions operating in local regional and international societies faculty of physical education at assiut university: faculty of physical education assiut university is one of the public educational institutions that render services in education scientific research and community service and environment development through a number of graduate and undergraduate programs according to recognized quality standards the study at the faculty of physical education started in the academic year 1980 1981 as a section of faculty of education assiut university and the ministerial resolution no 930 on 25 09 1984 was issued to approve the internal bylaw of faculty of physical education assiut university since that time the faculty has been in continuous development and the number of faculty members has become greater as well as other facilities such as constructions sports equipment academic and administrative buildings in a limited period of time and in the framework of a dynamic strategy adopted by assiut university to upgrade the curricula developing the education and research process to cope with recent improvements and advancements and the faculty of physical education assiut university strives to be pioneering and distinguished in education scientific research and community service on both national and international levels in the field of physical education faculty of nursing at assiut university: faculty of nursing was first established as a high institute by the decree of the president of the ministers council in 1982 however in 2000 another decree was released that ordered for its transformation from a high institute to an accredited egyptian faculty and it is a governmental educational research institution that works to prepare scientifically practically and professionally qualified individuals who are innovative and competitive nursing focuses on graduating individuals who are capable of addressing the problems of society in the fields of nursing through offering educational programs based on approved academic standards and scientific research that are up to date with the market requirements and quality standards the faculty performs its mission within the framework of recognized academic values and traditions faculty of nursing at assiut university aspires for the excellence and leadership in the fields of nursing education scientific research and community service through the graduation of well competent and highly trained graduates who are professionally able to meet the labor market demands and capable of effectively competing in the era of technology and science faculty of sugar and integrated industries technology at assiut university: faculty of sugar and integrated industries technology fsiit is the only graduate research institute of its kind in egypt and the arab region as a unique member of the nationally is driven from the assiut universitys devotion to education research and community services the institute is meant to be a graduate research institute targeting the promotion of knowledge and mult interdisciplinary research in areas related to industrial activities with particular emphasis on sugar and its integrated industries the institute's strategy is based on in-depth cooperation with stakeholders and industries interested in hiring graduates with specific professional skills and balanced multidisciplinary field to participate effectively in sugar industry the faculty provides high-quality applied educational programs and distinct research that meet the needs of the beneficiaries in the framework of the strategic objectives of the state especially in serving the sugar and integrative industries faculty of social work at Assiut University: the faculty of social service at Assiut University was established by ministerial resolution no 287 of 1995 and the main objective of establishing the college was to prepare scientific cadres and develop them professionally in the field of professional practice for social service as well as to conduct research and academic studies in social fields through cooperation with professional bodies to achieve social justice in the community the college participates in many community service projects including training social workers in Assiut Governorate it also participated in another project in the New Valley Governorate the college of social service graduates a social worker in the specialization of social service who meets the administrative and technical needs of social development institutions and is provided with the foundations of knowledge and skills for regional standards in the field of social service with special attention to the most needy groups and the creation of positive social change in society and has a full awareness of the needs and problems of society the environment and ethics of the profession as well as the faculty mission extends to raising the capabilities of graduates through intensive training courses and workshops the college of social work contributes to enriching the social and human sciences by conducting field research as well as community service and environmental development by providing technical and professional advice faculty of specific education at Assiut University: the college was established by resolution no 1181 of 1989 dated 10/26/1989 and studies began in the academic year 1990/1991 and it was affiliated with the Ministry of Higher Education then it was annexed to Assiut University by republican decree no 329 of 1998 amending some provisions of the executive regulations of the universities organization law the college aims to prepare specialized teachers and practitioners who are qualified in the fields of music education artistic education and home economics and highly trained in the skills required for the field of specialization the college also uses its human resources and material potentials in serving society and developing the environment faculty of arts at Assiut University: the faculty of arts is distinguished by the diversity and richness of its branches and studies our vision is to excel in the fields of different languages social sciences and humanities so that we contribute to the effective realization of the university's vision the faculty of arts Assiut University offers a number of programs supervised by professional professors to prepare qualified graduates in the fields of languages humanities and social sciences with good educational ability to help them compete in the labor market it also provides graduates with the necessary expertise to conduct scientific research and contribute to its development as well as serving society and solving its problems faculty of computers and information at Assiut University: the faculty started at the first university stage with 143 students 117 male and 26 female students in the academic year 2001/2002 then the number of students enrolled in the college developed until the number of students enrolled in the 2017/2018 academic year reached 1206 students the college of computers and information aspires to be a leading educational research institution in the field of computing community development and meeting international quality standards the mission of the college is to serve students and society by providing excellent education and innovative research in the fields of computer science information systems and technology and m ultimedia and developing the student's personality to make him able to participate in building a knowledgebased economy willing to innovate love group work and aware of the values of education continuous selflearning and able to compete locally regionally and internationally in the labor market and creative interaction with society and entrepreneurs faculty of dentistry at assiut university: the faculty of dentistry at assiut university was established based on the approval of the supreme council of universities no 565 on 622012 which includes the approval of the establishment of the faculty of dentistry at assiut university and the taking of legislative measures in this regard and the decision of the assiut university council no 575 on 7262012 which includes the approval of beginning of studies at the faculty of dentistry at assiut university starting from the academic year 20122013 and presidential decree no 194 of 2012 approving the establishment of the faculty of dentistry at assiut university the faculty of dentistry assiut university aspires to be in the ranks of regionally recognized medical educational institutions that are distinguished by innovative educational programs serving various segments of society through a highly skilled graduate who is able to communicate and deal with the patient and is able to collect information develop it with scientific research and apply it

south egypt cancer institute at assiut university: the mission of the institute the south egypt institute of oncology is a governmental institution to prepare specialized personnel to provide the utmost care for cancer patients to provide continuing medical education to train researchers and physicians in the field of oncology and to conduct research aimed at understanding the diagnosis treatment and prevention of cancer and related diseases the institute also works to raise awareness of cancer patients and early detection and prevention of cancer in southern egypt the institute works to ensure quality and continuous improvement of performance and efficiency in accordance with the letter of the institute's mission and the stated goals as well as gaining community confidence in its graduates graduating special human resources and empowerment and benefiting from internationally recognized evaluation mechanisms technical institute of nursing at assiut university: it was agreed to include the technical nursing institute which was affiliated with the medical faculties of egyptian universities to the nursing faculties in egyptian universities 922011 currently the technical nursing institute is affiliated to the faculty of nursing assiut university the technical institute for nursing was established in 19961997 by ministerial resolution no 1268 on 10281997 the technical secondary school for nursing of the faculty of medicine assiut university was opened by resolution no 45 dated 2221966 and issuing the list of nursing schools the school was assigned to appoint them in assiut university hospitals for university nursing competence and the school was managed under the responsibility of the college of medicine until the study at the school was suspended as a transitional phase in 1997 and the school was transferred to the technical nursing institute in 1997 technical secondary schools for nursing were reopened and the schools continued or not according to the needs of the hospitals as well as preparing graduates of the technical institutes of general nursing on 51998 and the technical institute of nursing at assiut university devotes efforts to graduate nurse with a high degree of cognitive competence clinically qualified and technology to deal with the health problems of patients and society with competence and rationality the institute has dedicated itself to providing nursing education based on scientific evidence by providing an educational environment equipped with the latest technological means the institute is also keen to provide a distinguished and fruitful nursing service to community members through continuous improvement in all aspects of activities while adhering to quality standards faculty of education for early childhood at assiut university: the faculty of early childhood education at assiut university seeks to prepare distinguished and specialized cadres of f kindergarten teachers to achieve educational and scientific leadership and to be able to invest technology and competition in all areas of education learning scientific research and community service to achieve comprehensive and sustainable development in the field of children it also seeks to mobilize energies and employ them to achieve the future vision to provide education that meets the requirements of the present and the future and produce s distinguished generations of female graduates who are qualified and trained to invest technology their research capabilities and advisory experiences in solving childhood and family problems and serving the environment and society through specialized centers and projects for distinguished kindergartens in light of regional and international quality standards and support its programs in sustainable development and continuous training molecular biology researches studies institute at assiut university: molecular biology researches studies institute is affiliated to assiut university it was established by the ministerial resolution no 1643 issued on 7/11/2019 to be the first institute at the level of the republic specialized in molecular biology researches and applications the institute's internal regulations were issued by the ministerial resolution no 3083 on 7/31/2019 after the approval of the basic sciences sector committee at the supreme council of universities the institute accepts graduates from faculties of the medical sector science engineering agriculture veterinary medicine computer science and information the institute aims to work on the speed of transfer and assimilation of modern technologies in the field of molecular biology and biotechnology developing and linking applied scientific research in the medical animal agricultural industrial and environmental fields to solve societal problems providing technical consultations feasibility studies and field participation to solve problems providing and facilitating the necessary means for scientific openness and exchange of experiences with international scientific institutes centers and bodies that carry out a similar activity organizing conferences holding seminars and scientific training courses individually or in cooperation with various scientific bodies the institute consists of three scientific departments department of molecular biology department of biostatistics and applied bioinformatics department of applied biotechnology

Contact information for assiut university: address: libraries street, markaz el-fath, assiut governorate; contact numbers: 0882354130; email: sup@aun.edu.eg; website: <https://life.aun.edu.eg/>; facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/www.aun.edu.eg>; twitter: https://twitter.com/aun_edu_eg; linkedin: <https://www.linkedin.com/school/assiut-university>; youtube play: https://www.youtube.com/channel/ucwq_77ktnasdcbmsbfij2w; instagram: ; map_src: <https://www.google.com/maps/embed?pb=!1m14!1m8!1m3!1d14195.849908898455!2d31.1685948!3d27.1889161!3m!1i1024!2i768!4f13.1!3m3!1m2!1s0x0%3a0x38d71298729ac58a!2z2kzyp9mf2lntyqsdyo9iz2yrzini3!5e0!3m2!1sar!2seg!4v1619812826319!5m2!1sar!2seg>